

P. Rodney Blevins
President and CEO–Southeast Energy Group

P. Rodney Blevins is president and chief executive officer of the Southeast Energy Group.

He oversees Dominion Energy’s regulated businesses serving nearly 1.7 million electric and gas utility accounts in North Carolina and South Carolina and approximately 400,000 competitive and regulated gas supply accounts primarily in Georgia.

Blevins joined Dominion in June 1987 as an associate engineer and held several positions across the electric distribution business, including responsibility for the system storm center, where he was involved in every major restoration event from 1999 to 2013. He was named vice president–Distribution Operations in 2006, responsible for the operation of the company’s electric distribution assets. He was appointed senior vice president and chief information officer in January 2014 and assumed his current role in January 2019.

Blevins earned a bachelor’s degree in electrical engineering from Virginia Tech and completed the advanced management program at Duke University’s Fuqua School of Business.

