

W. Keller Kissam
President Electric Operations
Southeast Energy Group

W. Keller Kissam is President, Electric Operations of the Southeast Energy Group

His business unit is responsible for electric transmission and distribution operations as well as fossil hydro generation.

His recent positions include President and COO, SCE&G and prior to this assignment, Kissam served as President of Retail Operations, SCE&G.

Kissam joined SCANA in 1988 as a new utility professional and has held numerous positions in both electric and gas operations. He was named Vice President, Gas Operations in 1996 and was named Vice President, SCE&G Electric Operations in 2003. He assumed his current position in 2019. He serves as president of the S.C. Independent School Association and is a board member and past President of the Southeastern Electric Exchange. He is on the boards of Wilson Hall School and the Central South Carolina Alliance.

Kissam earned a bachelor's degree from The Citadel, The Military College of South Carolina, where he served as Regimental Commander of the South Carolina Corps of Cadets. He also received an Honorary Doctorate of Business from The Citadel in 2015 and is a member of The Citadel's Business Hall of Fame.