

Thomas P. Wohlfarth
Senior Vice President-Regulatory Affairs
Services Company

Thomas P. Wohlfarth is senior vice president-Regulatory Affairs.

His responsibilities include oversight of state and federal regulatory strategy, filings and proceedings.

He joined the company in 1985 and has held a variety of positions in accounting, financial planning and financial and business services.

Wohlfarth became manager-Investor Relations at Dominion Resources in 1998 and director-Investor Relations in 2000. He was promoted to vice president-Financial Management for Dominion Energy in 2004 and was named vice president-Budgeting, Forecasting & Investor Relations in January 2006. He was named senior vice president and chief accounting officer in October 2007, senior vice president-State & Federal Regulation in July 2009 and senior vice president-State Electric Regulation in April 2010. Wohlfarth assumed his current position in September 2011.

He serves on the board of directors of the Partnership for Housing Affordability.

Wohlfarth earned his bachelor's degree from Washington & Lee University in 1984. He is a member of the Virginia Society of Certified Public Accountants and is a CPA.

