

Dominion Energy Virginia: Residential Rates Remain Very Competitive

Residential Rate Comparison, Typical Monthly Bills, 1,000 kWh (annualized)

As of February 2018, Dominion Energy Virginia's typical residential bill is 4.7% below the VA statewide average, 14.9% below the national average, 15.1% below the D.C. regional average, 21.8% below the East Coast average and 32.4% below the RGGI states average.

*Dominion Energy Virginia bill: Rates effective February 2018

^^VA Average: VA State Corporation Commission Report (Sept. 2017) for rates effective July 1, 2017. Includes co-ops, IOUs.

†D.C. Regional Average: Dominion Energy Virginia (rates effective October 1, 2017), Baltimore Gas & Electric, Potomac Electric (D.C.), Potomac Electric (Montgomery Co.), and Potomac Electric (Prince George's Co.)

Regional Greenhouse Gas Initiative (RGGI) states: ME, VT, NH, CT, RI, MA, NY, MD, DE. Rates effective July 1, 2017.

Source: Edison Electric Institute, Typical Bills and Average Rates Report: Summer 2017. Rates effective July 1, 2017. Annualized, monthly residential bills, 1,000 kWh usage. Latest data available.